HEALTHPATH

The Health Collaborative wishes to thank HealthPath Foundation of Ohio for their 2022-2024 support of the TAP Health initiative.

“By being in this program, you’re already doing all the right things in the journey to a successful career!”

Robbin Hoopes, Provost
Cincinnati State and Technical College

TAP Health Summer Academy is a healthcare careers exploration initiative of The Health Collaborative that is designed to show high school students various careers in allied health, nursing & medicine! Students selected to be in TAP Health can choose one track but visit events pertaining to all three areas. The program runs throughout June and July! Applications open every January at: taphealth.healthcollab.org

Our best feedback often comes directly from the students! We are always happy to provide additional quotes and context for TAP Health - including from 10 years of student graduates.

"I wanted to take a moment to express my gratitude and appreciation to you for organizing such an amazing, diverse, and professional TAP MD program. Every single one of our excursions was phenomenal, allowing us to witness the work of physicians at a level that most people never experience until medical school. I was truly impressed by the quality of the program and my parents (whom I've shared every detail with) and I thank you deeply for organizing TAP MD and inspiring me to continue working towards a career in medicine."

Are you an educator, student or parent interested in the next TAP Health Summer Academy?

Visit the QR Code to “Get on the List” to be notified as soon as the applications open in early 2025. Please note this list was designed for educators, and as such - we send occasional updates of events and opportunities for high school students beyond those of TAP Health. If you're a parent or student who doesn't wish to receive that additional information, you can always check our website or social media platforms for when applications go live!
